DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

- Species I directed to an ink jet printer comprising a plurality of light emitting diode (LED) elements arranged in adjacent columns and rows, the LED elements including a plurality of first-wavelength LED elements and a plurality of second-wavelength LED elements, the first-wavelength LED elements and the second-wavelength LED elements being arranged alternately (as seen in figure 5B)
- Species II directed to an apparatus wherein the first wavelength is shorter than the second wavelength, the first set of LED elements being disposed closer to the printer head than the second set of LED elements (as seen in figure 6B)
- Species III directed to a system comprising a first group of light emitting diode (LED) elements abutting one side of the printer head; a second group of LED elements abutting another side of the printer head, wherein the first group and the second group are arranged along the secondary scanning direction; and a third group of LED elements disposed near the printer head and arranged along the main scanning direction (as seen in figure 7B)

The species are independent or distinct because they are directed to mutually exclusive species.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claims are generic. Please note that this election/restriction requirement was made in direct response to the applicant's amendments to the claims. The claims were previously considered generic, but they are no longer considered generic due to the applicant's amendments.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).
